Cotesworth Culture and Heritage Center

About Cotesworth

Mississippi's contributions to American and world culture and heritage are extraordinary. Cotesworth presents a rare opportunity to establish a facility that fosters and showcases the broad scope of the state's culture and heritage, beginning with our agrarian society. Cotesworth was the home of J.Z. George, who served as a United States Senator from 1881 until his death in 1897. He supported federal legislation that had a lasting impact on American society, such as the establishment of the Department of Agriculture and land grant colleges. His statute in the United States Capitol represents the significance of his contributions. The Cotesworth Culture and Heritage Center serves as a center for education and interpretation of agri-tourism, civic gathering, community events, and cultural events.. Due to its geographical location between two recently-designated National Heritage Areas, the Mississippi Hills and the Mississippi Delta, it will also serve as a link to the heritage of this area. The vision for Cotesworth provides Mississippi with an asset to the region and to the people of Mississippi.

OUR MISSION

Cotesworth Culture & Heritage Center is a 501(c)3 non-profit foundation dedicated to preserving and sharing the legacy of Cotesworth as an educational center, heritage site, and venue for arts and events which bring economic and educational benefit to the region and to the people of Mississippi
